

Health & Safety Legislative Update for Health Care Industry

Health & Safety Legislative Update Training for Health Care Industry

Who Should Attend This Training

Enrolled Nurses, Charge Nurses, Supervisors
Managers Team Leaders, Human Resource Coordinators, Senior Caregivers and Maintenance Managers/Supervisors

Course Duration - 1 Day

What will you get out of this training:

This training programme is to raise awareness and build understanding of role responsibilities and legal requirements for work activities:

- Purpose of New Zealand Legislation Changes
- Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992 (Review)
- Health and Safety in Employment Amendment Act 1998
- Health and Safety in Employment Amendment Act 2002
- Objectives, Duties and Responsibilities of HASIE Act 1992/02
- Legislation Supporting the Health and Safety in Employment Act (legislation links)
- Duties Imposed by the Health and Safety in Employment Regulations 1995
- Principal/Contractor Health and Safety Management Responsibilities
- Hazardous Substances and New Organisms Act 1996 and Subsequent Regulations

Course Assessment:

Assessment is via group participation, workshop exercises, and submission of a written questionnaire. 85% pass mark is required to achieve competence and formal certification issuance.

This course is run Nationally and can be either In-house including client specific, or via Public attendance

There is a course scheduled to run 14 July 2008 in New Plymouth.

If you would like to discuss the training, receive a proposal, or simply view the course Objectives and Outline then please contact Margaret or Rebecca on:

0800 4 TOSHA

www.tosha.co.nz

intouch@tosha.co.nz

